A COLLECTION OF THE FINEST VILLAS IN GREECE

Villa Jacinda Porto Heli, Greece

A MEDITERRANEAN MANOR OF SUPREME ELEGANCE

This imposing property is located in Agios Emilianos, a noble area in Porto Heli prominent for its aristocratic residences. The plot's position has an extremely peaceful setting, enjoying a gentle elevation and an open horizon with views to the Aegean Sea. Graceful tall trees and a beautifully manicured Mediterranean garden naturally shelter the property from its surroundings. Completing the estate's overall allure is a large infinity swimming pool as well as an oversized, state of the art tennis court, which offer private gateways for leisure and outmost relaxation, while the closest beach is only a two-minute drive away.

This fine quality villa elegantly combines colonial, cottage and modern elements, creating an overall warm, fresh and stylish ambience. Space, comfort and light are the prevalent characteristics. The living quarters are generous in size with most chambers uniquely designed to access the garden through their outdoor patio. Inside, it is tastefully furnished to very high standards with delicate details contributing to the ultimate luxury. Pastel tones have been selected to discretely match the off-white floors and ceilings, while pieces of art and fabrics playfully add colorful bright nuances. Supplementing the spacious interiors are the marvelous pergola shaded outdoor dining- and lounging areas embracing the manor from the outside and leading up to the infinity pool. A professionally equipped kitchen with an adjacent open-air extension and a great barbecue area will make sure you enjoy unforgettable dinners under the stars.
